Inspection Summary

I performed a online map check of the area and found the site to consist of a gravel business in imagery from 1994 in ArcGIS. The current aerial imagery available online shows the area as a residential neighborhood with no gravel associated business being conducted.

No one to send report to.

On 3/4/16, I drove the neighborhood and confirmed that no gravel operations are being conducted, nor could they be.

This site and the information for the file will be sent to records center pending the voiding of the active permit.

There is not a contact available to notify for the voidance of the permit, thus the information will be kept internally.
